Are there any other aspects of this course that you think were very positive (e.g. particular readings, assignments, projects, topics studied) and why?

Comments
I liked how the topics we studied related back to our economy.
Enjoyed the writing assignments.
Mr. Valentinas was very enthusiastic; he would come to class early almost every class just to talk to his students. Assignments were relevant to what we learned in the textbook, which made the course very cohesive and easy to understand. Would love to have him as a professor again.
Instructor was really kind and cared about students. Required homework might have forced me to learn the material better.
Problem sets were very useful and the notes packets were helpful.

Are there any other aspects of this course you would change in future offerings (e.g. particular readings, assignments, projects, topics studied) and how?

Comments
I would recommend changing the formatting of the class, as my class was mostly our instructor reading the presentations, maybe implementing other ways of teaching
I wish the professor didn't read off the powerpoint and instead provided more real-world examples.
Pretty fair assignments

What aspects of the instructor's teaching style did you find very positive and why?

Comments
I thought that both lecturing and making us do problem questions during the lecture was a positive thing because it contributed to our understanding of the topic being taught. I also thought that giving short quizzes at the end of each chapter helped contribute to our understanding of each topic. I also thought that providing problem sets before the test prepared us.
willingness to be available to students, fast replies.
I loved how Professor Valentinas was very approachable and engaging with his students. He would come to class early almost every time in order to socialize with his students to build a relationship with them.
Enthusiasm, clear and organized.
Lectures were always simple but always had appropriate touches of humor and professor Rudys always encouraged class participation.

What specific advice would you give to help your instructor improve your learning experience in this course, and why?

Comments
To slow down during some of the lessons because it was to comprehend the material and make sure that the class is engaged.
try to connect with students more and engage them in more ways.
More group work, it made the class more engaged during review
